Special Announcement.

Pay Days.

All bills are due IN ADVANCE, and the First Monday in each month is designated "Settling Day", and in no case shall a student be permitted to go without adjusting accounts with the President, beyond the following date in each month:—October 30th; November 27th; December 25th; January 29th; February 26th; March 25th; April 22nd; and May 20th. A rigid compliance with this regulation will be demanded.

Location.

This School is beautifully located in the quiet and healthy town of Winton, only a short distance from the wharf, telegraph office and postoffice, and only a half-hours ride from Tunis, N. C., which is our nearest rail road station, on the Norfolk and Carolina Road. Tunis is also our nearest express office. A daily boat leaves Tunis for Winton after the arrival of the afternoon trains. Students are conveyed to and from the cars free of charge on their first arrival and final departure. Twenty-five cents will be charged for extra trips

Buildings.

Good, substantial and comfortable buildings have been erected for the entertainment of boarding students. Reynold's Hall, an edifice beautiful in design, contains lodging accommodations for fifty girls, and arrangements have been made to entertain an equal number of young men. Students are therefore expected to board in school, as by so doing better results can be derived. The managers are striving to make the Boarding Department first-class in every detail. A beautiful church edifice, South Winton, has been erected in which religious services and large public exercises are held. Improved lodging accommodations for young men are being provided.

Special Instruction.

To meet the requirements of teachers' examinations, lectures will be given on the principles and art of teaching, school organization and management.

— o —

Ministers' Course.

Provision is made for the accommodation of that class of ministers actively engaged in pastoral work who cannot afford to take an extended course, and who desire a more substantial preparation for the great work of preaching the gospel. An abridged course, including instruction in Language, Art of expression, Christian Doctrines, Church Polity, History of the English Bible, Church History, Church Work and Pastoral Duties, has been arranged to meet their wants.

Sewing Department.

A Sewing Department has been established, and instruction is given daily in needle work, cutting, drafting, and dress making. All girls are required to attend sewing classes.

Music.

Instrumental and vocal music are taught. One dollar extra per month will be charged and collected from all students taking instrumental music lessons—two lessons each week; and fifty cents per month—one lesson each week.

Religious Instruction.

Moral and religious training are especially emphasized. Regular weekly services and prayer-meetings are held in the chapel, and students are required to attend all religious exercises, and every effort is put forth to give a christian education. Parents are urged to allow their children to attend all Sunday services.

Special Advantages.

We have endeavored to adopt such a curriculum that the prosecution of which will give to those whose limited circumstances prohibit longer continuance in a school a fair, practical and substantial education, and that will enable those who may be eager for higher attainments to enter our best colleges. Thoroughness and proficiency are the only criterians of progress in our literary work.

Students' rooms are furnished with bedding and everything needed, except lamp, towels, soap and broom. Young ladies should come provided with umbrella, waterproof and overshoes. Students may enter at any time, but all are advised to enter promptly at the beginning of the term and continue to the close, as it hardly pays to enter and remain but a few weeks. Testimonials of good moral character must be presented on entrance.

The next school year is eight months, of four weeks each, beginning October 1st and ending May 19th.

—O—

Dress.

All extravagance in dress will be discouraged. Plain, substantial clothing, not expensive quality, should be provided for school room service. Parents are advised to avoid all unnecessary expense for dress. Dresses of plain, cheap white goods or of other qualities approved by the Matron shall be worn on anniversary occasions.

Financial Regulations.

1. No student will be re-admitted until all previous indebtedness has been paid.

2. On entering school each student must promptly enroll, and the amount to be paid each month must be definitely agreed on and recorded on the school ledger with his name.

3. Each student must state who is to be responsible for his school bills, and the name and address of said sponsor shall likewise be properly entered on the register.

4. One day in each month shall be observed as "settling day," at which time each student will be required to call on the Principal and adjust his accounts. (Dates given elsewhere.)

5. No student will be allowed to remain in school longer than a month without settling, unless satisfactory arrangements are made with the Principal and approved by the executive committee.

6. Students will be allowed to pay their board in produce, such as wheat, meal, lard, molasses, and such other articles that can be utilized in our boarding department.

7. The rates being so exceedingly low, prompt settlements are indispenably necessary for the well being of the institution, and will be demanded.

8. Tuition students are subject to the same requirements as boarding students.

Rules of Discipline.

I. Courtesy and mutual forbearance are expected of all; and students will be required to treat teachers with due deference and respect.

II. Students will not be allowed to retain fire-arms in their possession. The use of tobacco and intoxicating drinks are forbidden.

III. Any young man known to go down town at night, without permission, is liable to expulsion.

IV. Students will be held responsible for damage done to their rooms, furniture or any of the school property.

V. Students must invariably report to the Principal upon entering or leaving school.

VI. Attendance upon all class and chapel exercises is absolutely required, unless excused.

VII. Students care for their own rooms, and are held responsible for any damage done in them or any violation of rules, unless promptly reported to the Principal.

VIII. All students are required to do an hour's work each day for the school; but an extra payment of one dollar per month will relieve them from this responsibility.

IX. Rooms occupied by students are subject to inspection daily, and must be kept clean and tidy.

X. All students must apply themselves diligently to their studies during study hours, and must avoid visiting, talking, or making noise calculated to interrupt others.

XI. All students must obey the rules of the school—discipline and obedience are essentials to success. For persistent neglect of duty, insubordination, or contemptible conduct, students may subject themselves to immediate expulsion.

—O—

Organizations.

The following organizations are kept up for the benefit and training of the students, viz:—The Alumni Association, The Reynold's Mission Circle, a Y. W. C. T. U., a B. Y. P. U., and the Wells Brown Lyceum.

—O—

Financial Condition of the Institution.

The life of the school depends entirely upon the benevolence of its friends. We have no endowment or permanent fund. The American Baptist Home Mission Society, of New York, has kindly given us an annual contribution, thus making it possible, with great sacrifice, to keep our doors open. We are forced to depend largely on the meagre contributions of the colored people themselves for support. The Chowan Educational Association, composed of churches in the vicinity of the school, and the Chowan Sunday School Convention, composed of the schools of Hertford county, are the organizations through which we have raised the greater part of our money. The colored people immediately surrounding the institution have displayed magnificent liberality toward the enterprise. The school has developed immensely, and larger sums are needed to provide buildings and to meet the growing demands of the institution. We plead with increased earnestness for continued assistance, so that this enterprise, so grandly begun and so admirably located, may be made a permanent blessing to a grateful—though unfortunate—people. We invite our friends, North and South, having means at their command, and wishing to do a charitable work, or prepare their wills, to consider the needs and merits of Waters Institute.

We acknowledge, also, our gratitude to the churches, mission circles and societies throughout the North for the timely service rendered the institution by sending, from time to time, barrels of bed clothing, household supplies, clothing, etc.

How to Address Us.

Money for the Institution may be sent to the Principal, C. S. Brown, D. D., Winton, N. C., and an acknowledgement of the same will appear in the Home Mission Monthly, of New York.

Freight should be addressed, C. S. Brown, D. D., Winton, N. C., via Norfolk, Va. Express packages should be marked to Tunis, N. C.
